The undergraduate and graduate academic catalogs are produced through the Office of the Provost and are published once per year. The information is current as of the date of publication, which is the early part of the summer preceding the start of the fall semester. Georgian Court University reserves the right to add, delete or make changes or corrections to catalog information, including admission requirements, curricula, programs, tuition, fees, policies and procedures, after the date of publication. Students and other stakeholders will be notified of relevant changes through appropriate means such as email.
